

Latin III ~~~~~ Lesson 27

Day One

Chapter 49 on page 94 of your textbook deals with the story of Octavian, who becomes Caesar Augustus. He has put an end to the civil wars by crushing his enemies. He establishes a long period of peace for the Roman Empire.

The vocabulary list for Chapter 49 is lengthy. Take time to copy the words into your notebook, pronounce them aloud and familiarize yourself with their meanings. Can you find any derivatives from the list?

Compose five sentences, choosing words from the list. Attempt to put together complex sentences, calling for verb endings in subordinate clauses.

Day Two

From page 95, work the narrative: Caesar Augustus.

Scan, check and read.

In Latin, answer the questions at the end of the passage.

Day Three

On page 96 of your text, the narrative: Vergilius Augustum laudat, is an account by Virgil in which he praises Augustus.

Translate the first paragraph to line 10.

Day Four

On page 97, the cultural reading deals with Caesar Augustus. Read through the section, taking notes on the important points. (A look at the questions in the colored box at the end might help.)

Day Five

Write a page answering the four questions at the end of the reading on page 98.
